Taught by Cody F. Miller

- What is the best bad decision that you can make right now? How do you, and your community, keep a “white knuckled grip on God’s grace and promises?”
- What manna is the church and the world being fed by now? How are we responding to it?
- Who are the “under the radar” people in your neighborhood, church, and personal life? What small decisions do they make that prepare them, and the world, for something larger?
